From the Chicago Press and Tribune. The Harvest coming in-Prospects. blessed with abundance. But like all the bounties of Providence, that abundance has come quietly, and while it should be thankfully enjoyed, our people should not be beguiled into extravagance and folly neither should they hope for or desire the flush times Breadstuffs have an advancing tendency, but Let any one stand at the depot of any one of the eight trunk lines of railway that come into the cit the week's cotton sales speculators and ex-porters took 8,000 bales. Loaded with miscellaneous articles..... The amount of grain which it is understood a car contains, is 300 bushels; but such is the pressure that hippers crowd in from ten to twenty-five bushels ere. Taking each car at only 300, and $2,400 bush els of wheat were received by this single road alone in twenty-four bours. It is entirely safe to say, that the 164 cars loaded with grain brought 50,000 bushels to the city. The master of transpertation told us yes terday that he had just received a dispatch stating that there were on the track between here and Urba last evening. Of course, as the Illinois Central is longer than any other road, more freight, probably, arrives by it than any other; but upon all the eight West, there must nearly, or quite, a thousand freight cars arrive daily, loaded with the treasures of our teeming trairies. The amount of grain received for the last 24 hours, as shown by our commercial tables, What to us is scarcely less important than our abundant crop, is the fact that it is all likely to be wanted at fair prices. Present advices indicate that wanted at Lir prices. Present advices indicate that England will buy our surplus wheat, and the South will certainly want nearly, if not quite all the corn we have to spare. With such prospects before the Northwest, our people have great cause for gratitude to the Giver of all good. The sore embarrassments which have been pressing upon us for the last three years, are about to be removed. Inspiring hope will take the place of sullen despair. Prosperity and progress will cheer our people onward and a new error dewill cheer our people onward, and a new era of de-velopment is upon us. But while all this is true, let not extravagance and folly again run riot in the land. First of all, let all old debts be wiped out. Mortgages and notes with the word "paid" written across them, look better and are far more ornamental, snugly filed away in the old back trunk or in the drawer of the away in the old back trunk or in the drawer of the secretary than silks and gewgaws upon our wives and daughters. A diamond ring is bright and beautiful; but it is duliness itself compared with the light that sparkles in the husband and father's eyes when the last debt is paid. When debts are all out of the way, barns and houses are to be built, and other substantial improvements are to be made. Our railways are to be extended, and the great Northwest is to be subdued and be made to minister to the social and to the intellectual welfare of man. There is, therefore, ample scope for us to employ prudently and wisely all the proceeds of the spler op with which a kind and bountiful Providence has seed the land. Let us be faithful stewards and do McLean's Strengthening KEEP INSURED NASH & MARR, No. 25 College Street. Agents for Old and Reliable Companies. WITH AN AGGREGATE CASH CAPITAL OF
